A Note from Bob Doyle, CEO Boundless Living

Thanks for your interest in exploring the “Wealth Beyond Reason” program. We know that when you read through the chapters featured in this sampler, you’ll be anxious to learn more...and believe me, when you get your package, you’ll learn more than you can imagine!

I want to share with you why we put this package of books, seminars, meditations, and interviews together in the first place. And if you haven’t yet listened to our introductory audio at <http://www.boundlessliving.com/wealth/intro.wma>, then I invite you to do so now.

You see, the basic challenge we have in our society with regards to attracting wealth or anything ELSE we desire for that matter, is that we’ve been conditioned to believe that we are limited.

We’ve learned that “hard work” is the only way to success, and we don’t even SEE what miraculous creatures of creation we are!

But it’s not a “magical” or mystical thing at all, and it’s that belief that has so many “mainstream” people look the other way from this type of information.

Now that you’re going to take the time to dig a little deeper into what we’re really “made of” at a scientific level - at the level of Quantum Physics – you will begin to understand HOW, very precisely, we can change our lives very simply and powerfully.

This type of education is precisely what the “Wealth Beyond Reason” program delivers. These sample chapters will give you a small taste of what this package offers, and I’ve heard from many people who are able to begin to turn things around just by reading these chapters...but when they get the full package, they are totally blown away.

If you’re the type of person who has always suspected that there is “something” more...something just out of reach...then this program is specifically for YOU. The reason we so confidently offer our guarantee is that we know that this information will open the eyes of even the most skeptical individual.

The information is just too clear...too irrefutable. Yes, it’s much different than what you’ve likely learned your whole life. But if what you’ve learned your whole life hasn’t gotten you where you want to ultimately be, isn’t it time to at least CONSIDER a new way of thinking?

As you read through these chapters, imagine what mastering these principles will do to change your life in what ever way you desire!

After you finish reading, be sure to check out the list of other resources available for you to preview at no charge including several audio seminars, interviews, and a full teleconference recorded earlier this year that covers the basics of the “Wealth Beyond Reason” principles.

Yes, we give you access to a great deal of material, even without purchasing. Imagine how much you’ll receive when you have the full program!

Step 1: Understand your world

The world that you live in comes about in a certain way. Most people do not understand how it comes about, moment by moment, exactly. In fact, very, very few people understand how each moment is created. Understanding how your world comes into being, and your exact role in it, is what shall begin to get you out of the trap of suffering and shortage and into freedom and abundance.

You shall now see Nobel Prize winning scientific and spiritual evidence that shall convince you that you are at cause for everything in your world...and that you can change the effect any time.

Right now its time for some scientific evidence of this. Many Nobel Prize winning physicists have recently (starting in the 1920s) proven beyond doubt that the physical world is one large sea of energy that flashes into and out of being in a fraction of a second, over and over again. Nothing is solid. This is the world of Quantum Physics. They have proven that thoughts are what put together and hold together this ever-changing energy field into the ‘objects’ that we see. So why do we see a person instead of a flashing cluster of energy? Think of a movie reel. A movie is a collection of about 24 frames a second. Each frame is separated by a gap. However, because of the speed at which one frame replaces another, our eyes get cheated into thinking that we see a continuous and moving picture.

Think of television. A TV tube is simply a tube with heaps of electrons hitting the screen in a certain way, creating the illusion of form and motion. This is what all objects are anyway. You have 5 physical senses (sight, sound, touch, smell, taste). Each of those senses has a specific spectrum (for example, a dog hears a different range of sound than you do; a snake sees a different spectrum of light than you do; and so on). In other words, your set of senses perceives the sea of energy from a certain limited standpoint and makes up an image from that. It is not complete, nor is it accurate. It is just an interpretation.

Our thoughts are linked to this energy and they determine what the energy forms. This explains things such as positive thinking, prayer, faith, creativity, goal-setting, disease, and much more in a very scientific way. Your thoughts literally shift the universe on a particle-by-particle basis to create your physical life. Look around you. Everything you see started as an idea, an idea that grew as it was shared and expressed, until it grew enough into a physical object through any number of ‘manufacturing’ or ‘growth’ steps. You literally become what you think about most. Your life becomes what you have imagined and believed in most. The world is literally your mirror, enabling you to experience in the physical plane what you hold as your truth ... until you change it. You know this to be true internally, and so do most people, and that is why people know instinctively that positive thinking works.

Quantum physics shows you that the world is not the hard and unchangeable thing it may appear to be. Instead, it is a very fluid place continuously built up using our individual and collective thoughts and states of being as a society, country, family, planet, solar system, or universe. We have begun to uncover the illusion.

What is your body made of? Tissues and organs. What are tissues and organs made of? Cells. What are cells made of? Molecules. What are molecules made of? Atoms. What are atoms made of? Sub-atomic particles. What are subatomic particles made of? Energy? No. They are not made of energy; they are energy. You are one big 'chunk' of energy. And so is everything else.

Spirit and Mind puts together this energy into the physical shape you are used to seeing with your limited set of senses. If you go into a high-tech lab right now and ask them to let you see yourself under a powerful electron microscope and conduct other experiments on yourself, you will see that you are made up of a cluster of ever-changing energy in the form of electrons, neutrons, photons and so on. And so is your wallet, your spouse, your car, and everything else. Quantum physics tells us that it is the act of observing an object that causes it to be there where and how we observe it. An object does not exist independently of its observer!

Energy is the sub-atomic particles that come together to 'make up' atoms, which come together to 'make up' matter. Matter is energy. Matter is not converted energy, it is energy. Ever heard of Einstein's equation, $E=mc^2$? What it means is that any piece of matter of mass m is energy that can be calculated by multiplying that mass by the speed of light squared (what a large number!). You are literally made up of light, the same stuff light is made of (hence the Bible and many other spiritual texts tell us that light was the first thing to be created). Scientifically speaking, this energy exists as waves spread out over space and time. Only when you exercise observation do these waves become particles localized as a space-time event, a particle at a particular 'time' and 'space'. As soon as you withdraw observation, they become a wave again.

So, as you can see, your observation, your attention to something, and your intention, literally creates that thing as a space-time event. This is scientific. Even your relationships with other people are governed this way by unfailing laws of cause and effect. Your world is made of spirit, mind and body. Each of those three, spirit, mind and body, has a function that is unique to it and not shared with the other. What you see with your eyes and experience with your body is the physical world, which we shall call Body. Body is an effect, created by a cause. This cause is Thought. Body cannot create. It can only experience and be experienced ... that is its unique function. Thought cannot experience ... it can only make up, create and interpret. It needs a world of relativity (the physical world, Body) to experience itself. Spirit is All That Is, that which gives Life to Thought and Body. Body has no power to create, although it gives the illusion of power to do so. This illusion is the cause of much frustration, as you will soon see. So here are the functions and characteristics again:

Spirit ... Function: Life Force. Characteristics: Eternal, Infinite, All Knowing, All Powerful, One With All, Invulnerable, Unconditionally Loving, Fearless.

Mind ... Function: Create by extension of Thought, which, as you shall scientifically see, shifts the energy that comprises all things physical. Characteristics: 'Split' between Higher Mind and Lower Mind. Higher mind has same characteristics as spirit while lower mind tends to identify with Body.

Body ... Function: To experience. Experiences are possible only in a world of relativity (mind and spirit exist in a realm of absolute, not relativity, where comparison is impossible). Body is purely an effect and has no power to cause or create. Characteristics: Takes on whatever characteristics the mind gives it.

Part of “Wealth Beyond Reason” available at <http://www.wealthbeyondreason.com>

Chapter 1

Money: An illusion, a shadow of something else...

The first step to having wealth is to know what it is. And few people know what it really is, in and of itself. What is wealth? What causes it? What causes the cause of it? Let us start with money, the world's symbol of wealth, and then move deeper.

Money is not real.

Money is merely legal tender, a form of exchange. We use it to exchange value. It represents value.

Money is the ‘body’ of value. It is the physical representation of value that rises and falls in ourselves, within us. Not within ‘things’ outside of us, but within us. For without us, what can the value of a thing, such as a car, be to us? Nothing, at least not to us. In other words, it is we, the observers, that place value in things, but this value is really value in us - we give value to the material things. The material things have no ‘money’ value in themselves - we give that to them. So, money is the external physical representation of a particular section of our internal value, within us, within you. That is why a house or a block of shares valued at $1 million today can fall to a valuation of half a million dollars tomorrow when fear is introduced into the hearts of those involved. The fear kills a portion of the internal values of the participants and that is reflected by the paper money, the ‘body’ of value.

Here is something else: physical paper money does not even represent money in full. It cannot reasonably do that. By some estimates (and this varies from nation to nation), only as little as 4% of the money in the banks exists as paper cash. Imagine how much cotton, linen, pulp, and metal the world would need so as to make all the money everyone has in his or her bank accounts. Imagine how much space it would take to store all this money in paper form. If you were to stack only one million US$1 bills, it would weigh one ton and be 361 ft high. Neither does money exist as gold reserves any more. This is for exactly the same reason - we ran out of the reasonable ability to keep a gold standard in the 1970s.

So what does it exist as, the money that we are always talking about? Well, it is one massive illusion. It is all just numbers written on paper and computer storage devices, and assigned to people and entities such as companies and investments, or more accurately, further records! To put it in another way, for every $100 or its equivalent in any other currency, only about $4 exists as printed-paper notes or coins, while the remaining $96 exists as numbers written on papers and computers in banks and businesses and other entities. The only reason this system does not collapse is that we all believe in it. The last time people stopped believing in it in a large enough extent was just before the Depression when large numbers of people rushed to their banks to withdraw their money and found that they could not all get it. This is not what caused the Great Depression, but it in a large way accelerated it.

So, money is not real - something else is. Money is just the shadow of that other something. The first step to wealth is to know what money really is, or more accurately, what it represents. Learn not to look at the money most of the time. As you will soon see, it is very rare in a day that you should ever look at money as you know it today - the cash, the bank accounts, the costs, etc. This is merely the shadow and not the real thing. Looking at the shadow, the physical money, as you will soon see, is most of the time very unwise and unhealthy for you and your finances.

Look, instead, at the value within you and within people, and the flowing and exchanging of this value between people. Our internal value, is what creates money. Money is the shadow of our internal value. Develop this internal value in yourself and in others and your external money and wealth will correspondingly rise automatically, without fail.

Know this however: Money represents an aspect of a person's internal value, but that does not mean that it represents a person's entire internal value. That is very important. It is not about self-worth. Money only represents an aspect of that internal value that pertains to wealth. You cannot therefore say that a wealthy person has a higher self-worth and value than a poor person, but you can correctly say that in matters that relate and pertain to money, the wealthy person has a higher internal value in that aspect of value or that the person chooses to exercise a higher proportion of this internal value. This section of internal value that reflects on the outside as money, when exercised, is called Wealth Consciousness. It is available to all people equally and can be developed by and within all people equally. Like everything else that is important to our being alive, such as air, wealth consciousness is free to all. But you can choose to develop it or not develop it, or to exercise it or not. At any time, you can change your choice, and nothing outside of you can stop you.

You require nothing outside of yourself to increase your wealth consciousness, and therefore your money. All you need is within you right now. You may have forgotten it, but it is right there. You will now remember it. And the first step to that is to always remember that money is not real; it is the shadow of something else.

And here is another secret: Wealth consciousness is simply the expansion of your consciousness and awareness into the wealthy parts of your Self. That is why all that you need to increase your wealth consciousness is within you already. You are already wealthy, but you have been taught to choose to not experience your wealth. This insight changes everything. Like the wealthy people, you can now know how to and choose to start experiencing the wealthy you.

You have more wealth capability within you than you can possibly experience in a lifetime. You need not worry that you have reached your limit of becoming wealthy in any way or because of any condition. Neither do you need to know how to convert wealth consciousness into paper cash money - as you will see, it will happen automatically. All you need to do is expand your wealth consciousness and exercise it, act on it, be it, and the situations and opportunities for the equivalent conversion into cash money will present themselves automatically to you. None of the extremely wealthy people today could have, at the time when they were not wealthy, possibly predicted and planned the exact sequence of events that would lead to their immense wealth. They most probably had a set of goals and a plan, but any one of them will tell you that they met countless 'coincidences' and opportunities that 'joined the dots' for them in ways they could never have predicted. Their goals were their own doing, but the paths that led to them coming into being, and exceeding them, were amazingly intelligent yet unforeseen. You shall now see how to make them happen in your life - you may not be able to predict their sequence, but you can certainly make these 'fortunate coincidences' happen to you every day of your life.

By the way, it is not only paper money that is not real. A lot of the things around you that you hold so real are really not real at all either. You are about to embark on a beautiful, empowering and liberating journey that will show you exactly what your world is in a way that you have never looked at it before. It is a journey that will open your eyes and free your wings. You are about to look 'under the hood' of the Life, you are about to learn how to customize your world to your liking.

You are about to attain Wealth Consciousness. Once you do, avoiding success and wealth will become very difficult. Yes, you read that correctly. Once you have wealth consciousness, it will be very difficult for you to not have success and wealth. Success and wealth will follow you automatically wherever you go. You will not need to concern yourself with their quest, yet they will find you. You will be free to experience other aspects of life that you may not have even dreamt of before, dimensions of Self and Life that are truly amazing. The same goes with happiness, for you will see it here in this book as well.

Sample Chapter from “Raising Humans”, by David Cameron

Part of “Wealth Beyond Reason” available at <http://www.wealthbeyondreason.com>

Before You Begin...

Before you begin, you must understand a few very important things. If you wish to have the ability to fulfill your wishes, heal yourself and achieve success, you must understand the construction and functioning of yourself and your world. Please do not skip these explanation sections below as they are very necessary for your solutions and success! You will see how they all tie in with everything as you move further along. The whole point of these explanations is to show you how you and your world are specifically-built, powerful and intelligent energy systems and how you would master this energy and thereby master yourself and your life situations.

Your Construction

You cannot build a house if you do not know how a house is built and what it is made of.

The same applies to your body and your life situations.

Imagine that you are walking into a high-tech laboratory. You then place your hand under a microscope and look into the eyepiece. What would you see? You would see the skin tissue on your hand.

Now imagine that you increased the magnification power on this microscope and looked again. What would you see? You would now see the cells that make up your tissues. Magnify further and you would see the various molecules that make up each cell. For example, there would be water molecules, oxygen molecules, carbon molecules, and so on. Whatever part of your body you look at is made up of molecules. DNA is a strand of various molecular structures, and so are brain cells, bone marrow cells, and so on.

Now magnify further and what do you see? You see that the molecules themselves are made up of atoms. Magnify further, if you can get your hands on the technology to do so, and you would realize very clearly that all atoms are made up of subatomic particles such as electrons and protons. And electrons and protons and all subatomic particles are actually energy! A proton is an energy packet. Now this is very important: energy does not ‘change form’ to become matter. Energy is matter and vice versa.

ENERGY

Molecules are groups of atoms. Atoms are groups of energy particles. Do you see that? The same hand that you see as a solid object when you observe it with your bare eyes is the same hand that looks like a cluster of energy packets when you observe it at a suitable magnification. It is the same thing! You are a cluster of energy, and so is everything else.

This cluster of energy is always in motion, moving and changing to form new configuration at every moment. That table that is in your dining room is not as solid as it appears to be. On a highly magnified level, you would realize that it is in constant flux, 'losing' and 'gaining' billions of energy packets, but intelligently maintaining the overall 'look' of a table.

It is only that your five senses of sight, smell, taste, touch and smell can only perceive groups of energy activity. This perception is interpreted in the mind as a physical form. Your eyes see billions of energy patters behaving in a certain way and they interpret that as the color green, for example. Your hand feels energy behaving in a certain way and it interprets that as hard, for example. So what is your body doing with external things that it senses? It is experiencing energy in motion (e-motion, emotion). And as you will see below, it is doing the exact same thing with internal things (thoughts and feelings).

Sample Chapter from “The Science of Getting Rich”, by Wallace Wattles

Part of “Wealth Beyond Reason” available at <http://www.wealthbeyondreason.com>

The Right To Be Rich

WHATEVER may be said in praise of poverty, the fact remains that it is not possible to live a really complete or successful life unless one is rich. No man can rise to his greatest possible height in talent or soul development unless he has plenty of money; for to unfold the soul and to develop talent he must have many things to use, and he cannot have these things unless he has money to buy them with.

A man develops in mind, soul, and body by making use of things, and society is so organized that man must have money in order to become the possessor of things; therefore, the basis of all advancement for man must be the science of getting rich.

The object of all life is development; and everything that lives has an inalienable right to all the development it is capable of attaining. Man’s right to life means his right to have the free and unrestricted use of all the things which may be necessary to his fullest mental, spiritual, and physical unfoldment; or, in other words, his right to be rich.

In this book, I shall not speak of riches in a figurative way; to be really rich does not mean to be satisfied or contented with a little. No man ought to be satisfied with a little if he is capable of using and enjoying more. The purpose of Nature is the advancement and unfoldment of life; and every man should have all that can contribute to the power; elegance, beauty, and richness of life; to be content with less is sinful.

The man who owns all he wants for the living of all the life he is capable of living is rich; and no man who has not plenty of money can have all he wants. Life has advanced so far, and become so complex, that even the most ordinary man or woman requires a great amount of wealth in order to live in a manner that even approaches completeness. Every person naturally wants to become all that they are capable of becoming; this desire to realize innate possibilities is inherent in human nature; we cannot help wanting to be all that we can be. Success in life is becoming what you want to be; you can become what you want to be only by making use of things, and you can have the free use of things only as you become rich enough to buy them. To understand the science of getting rich is therefore the most essential of all knowledge. There is nothing wrong in wanting to get rich. The desire for riches is really the desire for a richer, fuller, and more abundant life; and that desire is praise worthy. The man who does not desire to live more abundantly is abnormal, and so the man who does not desire to have money enough to buy all he wants is abnormal.

There are three motives for which we live; we live for the body, we live for the mind, we live for the soul. No one of these is better or holier than the other; all are alike desirable, and no one of the three—body, mind, or soul—can live fully if either of the others is cut short of full life and expression. It is not right or noble to live only for the soul and deny mind or body; and it is wrong to live for the intellect and deny body or soul.

We are all acquainted with the loathsome consequences of living for the body and denying both mind and soul; and we see that real life means the complete expression of all that man can give forth through body, mind, and soul. Whatever he can say, no man can be really happy or satisfied unless his body is living fully in every function, and unless the same is true of his mind and his soul. Wherever there is unexpressed possibility, or function not performed, there is unsatisfied desire. Desire is possibility seeking expression, or function seeking performance.

Man cannot live fully in body without good food, comfortable clothing, and warm shelter; and without freedom from excessive toil. Rest and recreation are also necessary to his physical life .

He cannot live fully in mind without books and time to study them, without opportunity for travel and observation, or without intellectual companionship. To live fully in mind he must have intellectual recreations, and must surround himself with all the objects of art and beauty he is capable of using and appreciating.

To live fully in soul, man must have love; and love is denied expression by poverty.

A man's highest happiness is found in the bestowal of benefits on those he loves; love finds its most natural and spontaneous expression in giving. The man who has nothing to give cannot fill his place as a husband or father, as a citizen, or as a man. It is in the use of material things that a man finds full life for his body, develops his mind, and unfolds his soul. It is therefore of supreme importance to him that he should be rich.

It is perfectly right that you should desire to be rich; if you are a normal man or woman you cannot help doing so. It is perfectly right that you should give your best attention to the Science of Getting Rich, for it is the noblest and most necessary of all studies. If you neglect this study, you are derelict in your duty to yourself, to God and humanity; for you can render to God and humanity no greater service than to make the most of yourself.

Sample Chapter from “Spiritual Marketing”, by Joe Vitale

Part of “Wealth Beyond Reason” available at <http://www.wealthbeyondreason.com>

It Can Be Another Way....

Before I became a marketing specialist and author, I was an inner world journalist for over ten years, writing for several leading edge magazines. As a result, I’ve seen miracles with my own eyes. For example:

I interviewed Meir Schneider, a man who was diagnosed as blind. He was given a certificate saying he was incurably blind, and yet today he sees, he reads, he writes, he drives a car---and he has helped hundreds of people regain their vision, as well.

I spent time with Barry and Suzi Kaufman at their Option Institute and saw and heard of miracles there. Their own child was born autistic. They were told to give up on him. But they didn’t. They worked with their son, loved him, nurtured him, accepted him---and healed him. Today he lives as an above average, happy, successful adult.

I’ve sat in dozens of workshops where I saw people heal their relationships with their lovers, their parents, their kids. I’ve interviewed gurus and mentors, talked to people who have had “incurable” problems dissolved, and I’ve experienced miracles first-hand in my own life. I’ve come to believe that nothing---nothing!---is impossible. Recently I’ve been working with Jonathan Jacobs, a man called “the healer’s healer” because his track record for helping heal people is so stunning that doctors are referring their own patients to him. I’ve seen Jonathan take people with everything from money problems to back injuries to cancer, and help heal them, often in a single session.

I’ve tasted this myself. For most of my life I struggled with money. When I lived in Dallas some twenty years ago, I was homeless and starving. I shoplifted to eat. And when I moved to Houston, I found it a frustrating nightmare to come up with $200 a month to live in a dump. It was hell. Yet I went through it for nearly fifteen years. YEARS! Then, after doing a few sessions with Jonathan, I somehow let go of my old beliefs about money, installed new ones, and now my finances are so amazingly different that I am often in awe that I have so much: new cars, new home, world travel, more clients than I can handle, and a constant stream of cash that keeps me above water at all times. I pay every bill that arrives, when it arrives, and I never experience lack.

What happened? How can Meir cure the blind? The Kaufmans heal autism? Jonathan help people with any list of problems? Me have money when for a decade I had next to none?

It begins with knowing that “It can be another way.” That’s what I want you to understand right now. That no matter what is happening in your life, no matter what you think will happen, it can be another way. The direction you appear to be headed can be altered. Nothing is set in concrete.

In fact, as you’ll see, everything in life seems to be plastic. You can mold it to fit what you want and where you want to go. Even right now, as you read these words, you can begin to play with new possibilities: What do you want to be, do, or have? Win the lotto? Why not? Increase your business? Why not? Heal something? Why not? A friend of mine asked, “How do you know what is impossible?”

I replied, “How do you know what isn’t?”

I believe our planet is what was described in a Star Trek television episode called “Shore Leave.” When Kirk and his team land on a planet to check it out before sending the rest of the crew down for some much needed rest and relaxation, they begin to experience odd events. McCoy sees a huge white rabbit. Sulu sees an ancient samurai who chases him. Kirk sees an old lover and an old classmate. After experiencing the joys and sorrows of these events, it finally dawns on the crew (thanks to Spock, of course) that they are on a planet that reads their thoughts and creates what they think about.

I think Earth is that planet. What you hold in your mind with energy and focus will tend to be created in your reality. It takes a little longer to experience results because we keep changing our minds. Imagine going to a restaurant and ordering chicken soup. But before it arrives you change your order to won ton soup. And before that arrives you change your order back to chicken soup. You’ll sit there and complain, saying “I can never get what I want!”, when in reality you are the reason your soup is late! Most of us do that every day. Our indecision makes manifesting what we want nearly impossible. No wonder you end up feeling that you can’t get what you want.

Yet, it doesn’t have to be that way.

Consider what Frances Larimer Warner wrote in Our Invisible Supply: Part One, in 1907:

“Spirit is substance which forms itself according to your demands, and must have a pattern from which to work. A pan of dough is as willing to be formed into bread as biscuit. It makes as little difference to Spirit what we demand.”

That’s the foundation to the five-step process I’ll describe in this book: Knowing that life can be different for you, and that life itself will support you in what you want.

Here’s how:

“Try to remember that the picture you think, feel and see is reflected into the Universal Mind, and by the natural law of reciprocal action must return to you in either spiritual or physical form.”

Correcting Subconscious Beliefs

The implications of what you’ve just learned are staggering. With a little more instruction and practice, you will be able to get all the answers you need to manifest great abundance. That alone is astonishing. It is incredible that each of us has access to all knowledge, but this is the simple truth.

Even with as little as we know about the brain, we marvel at its complexity. The countless miles of nerves, the infinite connections, the delicate chemistry, the role of genetics, the specialized compartments and functions are only openers. We know we have just begun to understand—if we can even use that word—how the brain fits into the whole scheme of creation.

One day biologists and psychologists will discover the brain is only one piece of a greater marvel. The brain will be considered akin to a large transformer in a power substation where energy arrives to be transformed into useful current.

In similar fashion, the brain is connected to a source of infinite intelligence, and it transforms it into useful knowledge. Intelligence is an aspect of energy. It is ordered, specific, and carries codes or information that can be read and understood by the brain.

This intelligence permeates all of creation. There is no way to escape it. Because we are part of creation, of nature, we wallow in that sea of intelligence. This is the same intelligence that comes up with the infinite variety of DNA and the life forms it produces. It is the same intelligence that keeps planets in perfect order, brings about seasons, blends earth, air, fire, and water, and struggles to preserve the balance of nature. Nothing is not touched by this intelligence because nothing is not from this intelligence.

Catch that last sentence: nothing is not touched by this intelligence because nothing is not from this intelligence. Intelligence has made everything. Everything is from intelligence. Whatever appears in creation is really just a product of intelligence. Everything came from the same intelligence.

You are that intelligence. You were created by it—whether at birth, or inception, or eons ago is immaterial. You are now created, and you have retained the intelligence that created you.

That is key. By retaining the intelligence that created you, you retain its qualities, its powers, and its properties. All the intelligence of the cosmos is retained in you. That is why you can develop techniques to learn anything you need to know. That is why your brain responds and gives you “Yes” and “No” signals to tap into that intelligence.

It is the need to know that governs. But what do you need to know? You need to know your role in preserving order, how to evolve with the natural scheme of things, how to develop your innate qualities, and how to get in touch with your nature. For these purposes you can be all-knowing. Humankind forgot long ago these were the ultimate purposes of our precious lives. Since our link to infinite intelligence is strictly for advancing those ultimate purposes, the link was not used and withered. Instead, we embarked on power trips, on selfish hoarding, on wars, and on anger.

We lost touch with the guiding light of intelligence. Without the guide, we lost direction. Now life is a struggle. Poverty flourishes. Sickness ensues. Unfairness is everywhere.

When we lost touch with our innate intelligence, we lost our abundance, money, and the multifarious forms of wealth. That is where most of us are now. We are in a vast lake of water, yet dying from thirst. We are floating in intelligence that can guide us to our birthright of wealth. Whether or not we see that, accept it, and allow it to become part of our life is up to each of us individually. We each have free-will to accept or reject.

You may not understand fully the mechanics of how cosmic intelligence fits into our lives, how we were created by it, how it remains a part of us, or how we accept or reject its properties. It isn't important that you do. Nevertheless, you have experienced your connection to it with your "Yes" and "No" signals.

When you asked for the "Yes", then the "No" signal, you were essentially asking to be connected to that intelligence. That is the first step. The phone lines are in. Now it is time to learn how to use the line. Incidentally, the phone is on a party line. You do not have exclusive use of the line. Everyone else has the very same right. That's important for you to keep in mind as this knowledge unfolds. Some people tend to feel better, or more developed, or special when these techniques are learned. If those thoughts start to creep in, let them go. You are indeed unique and special. However, everyone else has the same access to the same intelligence of the cosmos that you have.

In the next exercises you practice accessing this intelligence to discover knowledge you need to know. This book sets out a path to garner money, but by now you may suspect that your new techniques will open up far more. That be as it may, let's refocus now on money.

Yeah—money!!

We all want money, Right? Well, yes and no. You may indeed think you want money, but there could be some deep-seated fear about getting it. Maybe you are afraid your friends will think you're too uppity and leave you. Maybe you're afraid to manage it—all those investment decisions. Maybe you're afraid you'll lose your ambition, or that your personality will change. Maybe you're afraid money will make it impossible to continue your career.

If you don't experience abundance, you can be certain you have some deep fear about having money. It represents pain to you. I realize that is not what you think you think. Consciously you want money and you can see all the benefits it could bring. Nevertheless, if you don't now experience abundance, you have some deep-seated fear that you need to come to grips with.

Subconscious thoughts can be a real thorn in each of our lives. They lie below the surface and scream at us. We aren't able to hear them clearly, but some part of our brain does. Whenever the brain is about to feed us a thought on what to do next, it may hear one of these subconscious thoughts.

Let us say you are approached by a friend to go into a partnership to make art posters. It sounds like minimal risk, a good return, little capital requirements, and even fun. You're about to yell "Yes" when the brain hears “I think I’d be happier without money; money is the root of all evil; it is easier for a rich man to go through the eye of a needle than enter the gates of heaven.” So, you’re fed a feeling of fear by your brain, and you pass up the opportunity to make the investment. You don’t know why, and you may never know. You just can’t.

These subconscious thoughts can torpedo each and every safe and clear chance to make money. They do, and they will. They will torpedo as long as they are there. I am not saying anything new. Psychologists have known for decades the role our subconscious plays. All kinds of therapies have been developed to get down there, see them, tear them out, relive the experience that put them there, and replace them. Each of these therapies has its place, and certainly, each has contributed to our understanding about the role of our subconscious beliefs. Now you’re going to experience a very easy technique that can revolutionize all approaches for dealing with the subconscious.

You are going to ask that all-knowing intelligence within you what beliefs you have that interfere with making money. Then you’re going to erase that belief and replace it with a more appropriate one. This is the first task of your “Yes” and “No” signals. It will work because this is knowledge you need to know to accomplish your ultimate purposes.

The six step procedure is called The Subconscious Cleansing.

Memorize the steps before beginning.

Step One is ten minutes of The Basic Practice focusing on your money rhythm.

In Step Two think, “Give me a subconscious belief I have that interferes with making money.” Listen for the answer. It will appear in your mind as any other thought. When you have it, ask, “Do I have a false belief that (then state it)?”

If your “Yes” and “No” signals verify the false belief, write it down in your journal, labeled “False”. That is Step Three.

In Step Four close your eyes again and get settled down. Then ask, “What is the correct belief?” Use the same procedure to find out and verify the correct belief. When you have it, write it in your journal next to the false belief, and label it “Truth”.

Step Five is repeating the process for about ten minutes. Take a couple of minutes and come out slowly to avoid roughness.

Repeat The Subconscious Cleansing twice a day for the next few days until you’re certain you’ve discovered all of the false beliefs and corrected them.

This is an exercise you’ll need to repeat periodically the rest of your life. New levels of beliefs surface to be cleansed, and false beliefs find their way in. Stay on top of it. Make certain you always have in your subconscious mind beliefs that support wealth.

You can correct your beliefs easily because you are in charge of your subconscious mind. It is your servant. You place beliefs into your subconscious because you think they are very important and true. You want them to override whatever else you think, without rethinking them each time. That is why you program them as automatic thinking. It is quite an efficient system as long as the beliefs are correct and serve you well.

Since you put the beliefs in the subconscious mind, you can change them. Changing the subconscious is like changing any computer: erase the old, put in the new. You do this with your intention. It is just a matter of intending. What you intend to believe is what will appear in the subconscious mind.

To be certain that your intention is perfectly clear, create a kind of ceremony to destroy the false belief. This is Step Six. Any ceremony that seems most fun and meaningful is fine. Keep in mind you are showing your brain what is your intention. I write the false belief on a piece of paper, then burn it. Put on your creative hat and come up with something very special just for you.

After you have destroyed the old belief, do something similar for the correct belief—the Truth—to exalt it. Some people write it down and place it on the bathroom mirror or the refrigerator. Others put it in a bible or other holy book. Writing it in your journal may be enough. Whatever you do is just to signify your intention.

There you have it. In one big swoop you can discover a false belief that limits money in your life. In another swoop you can correct the belief with Truth.

This is the first concrete step toward making money. More importantly, this is the first step in using the intelligence you are—the intelligence of the cosmos. You are created to live a life of abundance, and the intelligence behind all of creation is there to assist. Go for it.

THE SUBCONSCIOUS CLEANSING

STEP ONE: Ten minutes of The Basic Practice of focusing on the money rhythm.

STEP TWO: Think, “Give me a subconscious belief I have that interferes with making money.” Listen for the answer. It will appear in your mind as any other thought. When you have it, ask, “Do I have a false belief that (then state it)?” Use your “Yes” and “No” signals to help receive the answer.

STEP THREE: Write down the false belief in your journal, labeling it “False.”

STEP FOUR: Close your eyes again and get settled down. Then ask “What is the correct belief?” Use the same procedure to find out and verify the correct belief. Write it down in your journal next to the false belief, and label it “Truth.”

STEP FIVE: Repeat the procedure for ten minutes. Then take another few minutes to come out slowly.

STEP SIX: Devise a ceremony to emphasize your intention to destroy the false belief and to replace it with a correct belief—the Truth.

Here's what people are saying about the "Wealth Beyond Reason" program:

"Since I've gotten the "WBR" package I've learned how to identify and "let go" of the negative energy...this is going to be an awesome life now! In one week I have turned none paying clients into paying clients and allowed the manifestation of an $11,000 piece of equipment that I've been struggling to get since January...all by simply letting go of the negative energy and feeding the positive energy. Now I can see a field of wealth particles being magnetically drawn to me constantly...it looks like a star-field...I have actually become a wealth magnet!"

"Utterly Fantastic! Overwhelmingly eye-opening! I have just completed my first month of the new year and have made this January THE most productive month financially in the eight years that I have been in business."

Bobby Allen
bobby.allen@spectrumlending.com

"I must say that I have not been studying the program for very long but so far the results have been great!! I was unemployed for the past 3 months and started using the principle of giving for a 10 fold return and it has worked wonders! I got a job within 2 days of starting the practice and this was from the $10 purchase of the e-book seed money. I was also paid $258.00 owed to me from a program I was promoting on the internet that I thought had gone bad. and last but not least yesterday I won a shopping spree at a local supermarket!! This stuff is great and I can't thank you enough. God bless you and yours!!"

"Fantastic! I can't believe you get so many books, access to so many audios, and direct contact with such practical as well as spiritual information on how to remove any and ALL barriers to receiving wealth. This program can remove your limiting beliefs, scrub your brain clean, and free you to receive wealth -- beyond reason! I love it!"

"I cannot tell you how EXCITED I am about this program and your material I have already read. At 50 years old have been through all the books, but it never really sunk in until 2 or 3 days ago when I started reading "A Happy Pocket Full of Money" I now think back at the terms or phrases from other material and understand what it all meant. "Think and Grow Rich" is one I read and re-read, but it didn't register. Depak Chopra is another one who confused me, but from the little I have read from your newsletter and the David Cameron book I now understand some of the things he talks about. Your audio, which I am listening to is AWESOME! I will definitely use it daily."

"I've had the course only for a short while and I have noticed a great shift in my consciousness. The Wealth Meditation is excellent. The "Happy Pocket Full of Money" is incredible. That book has so many gems and insights, I can't seem to put it down. I have a strong feeling at this point that this program is going to really change my life. I was very, very skeptical about this program. I had tried many others that claimed all sorts of benefits and delivered nothing. From what I have seen this course is worth many times its cost. I would implore anyone who would like to change their financial future to start this course and let the change begin!"
